DOCTOR'S TRAINED

What is UK CPD Accreditation?

UK CPD means Continuing Professional Development. It officially recognizes your learning and skills according to UK standards. For doctors preparing for MRCP UK or planning to work abroad, it has become an essential proof of continuous learning. All our MRCP preparation courses are UK-based CPD accredited, reflecting quality, credibility, and educational excellence.

Why is it important for doctors?

Accepted by international medical bodies GMC, IMC, DHA, HAAD, MOH and others use CPD hours to judge your commitment and updated knowledge.

Your study hours are officially recorded Every class and study hour becomes part of your professional record.

Stronger job and training applications Candidates with UK CPD appear more credible and disciplined.

Helps in promotions and career growth Many institutions now require CPD hours.

International proof of your skills Your learning becomes aligned with global standards.

Where can you get UK CPD-accredited courses?

For the first time in Bangladesh, SsAcademy is now UK CPD accredited. Your MRCP UK preparation is officially recognized as a global professional development program. Every learning hour counts internationally and gives you an edge at home and abroad.
